the dawn was breaking. There were not more than eight miles or so away, now, and they were green. "We must be water there," said Tommy, I said.

Labashimbi lifted "Toto into the arms of a strong man. He made out of the clearing that was the camp in which to carry his oxen, and we staggered on after him through the sand. She woko cry, "Water, water, and, what we had none to drink, our tongues were hanging out, we could scarcely speak. He took swifly, and Toto merced away, away. Then Labashimbi took her. "Though he was as old as the man's strength was worn out."

"I hope Mr. Greatly," said "HORACE WHITTIER," Post at Murray, Aroostook County, Maine: "For nearly three years I been troubled with kidney trouble, constant passing of water, etc. I have taken DAN'S SASSAPARILLA making the LIVER and KIDNEY S, and they have helped me great."

Never Get Better in My Life.

"I GOTTER," of the firm of Colborns, poultry raisers, Belfast, Me. "I was not feeling well this spring, and was taking a different kind of medicine. Have taken But one of DAN'S SASSAPARILLA and I feel better than I have felt since. I feel better in my life."

and bronchial (nearly) cured and safe remedy, for the unfortunate, who has neglected the warning nature always gives to all.

People

When the cold chills start in to do its deadly work. Everybody is delirious with this elegant cough syrup. They take it foolish that in doing so they are sure of being cured and that it is the best thing for the lungs. The wonderful syrup stands superior to all others, and proves its great value for the cure of colds, a thing of beauty, and an example of the advanced state of modern medicine.
